

Local News

CONTINUED FROM PAGE FOUR

Mr. and Mrs. John Thornton were guests at H. H. Skinner's the first of the week.

Oliver Barber of Boston is visiting his brother, Henry Barber, and other friends here.

Rev. R. B. Wright from Boise City, Idaho, made a brief call on friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Ingalls from Sutton visited their cousin, Mrs. Hastings last week.

A large number went to Glover village July 4th to attend the celebration which was very good.

Miss Coleman closed a successful term of school July 1st and has gone to her home in Newport.

Minnie Shephard, who was working at M. H. Lewis' has gone to her home and is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Garvin and son Charles are visiting Mrs. Garvin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Barber.

GREENSBORO.

Miss Alice Ingalls goes this week to Old Orchard, Me., for a brief stay.

Miss Jennie Barnett is at work for Mrs. Bertha Miller for a few weeks.

Miss Mabel Martin of Middlebury is working for her aunt, Mrs. F. C. Kinney.

Mrs. E. V. Scott of North Haverhill, N. H., is visiting relatives in town.

Miss Frances Grant of Craftsbury is employed in the home of Rev. S. T. Achenbach.

Miss Zita Towne of Morrisville was a guest at the home of W. S. Ingalls a few days last week.

Miss Lelia Tupper has finished work for Mrs. C. H. Miller and returned to her home in North Craftsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fay of Westfield were guests of her father, L. A. Jackson, a few days last week.

Mrs. Jane Evans, who has been stopping at the Caspian Lake house for a time, went last week to Boston, Mass.

A large number of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Clary gathered at their home on Monday afternoon and evening to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. Refreshments were served and all enjoyed a pleasant time.

The Four Corners school closed Friday. The pupils having the least marks were: Henry McFarlane, Arthur Clary, Floyd Clary and Ernest McFarlane. Henry and Arthur received no marks, Ernest was absent one half day and Floyd two days. The school enjoyed a picnic the last day of school in the Clary sugar grove.

CALEDONIA COUNTY.

WEST BURKE.

Miss Laila Roundy spent Sunday at St. Johnsbury Center.

Miss Grace Davis is at home from her school in Campton, N. H.

Mrs. Bert Hall of Lyndon recently visited her aunt, Mrs. Clara Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Colby spent July 4th with friends in Derby Line.

Arthur Gaskill of St. Johnsbury is spending two weeks' vacation here.

Miss Mattie Dickerman has been spending a few days with friends in Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Farmer from Island Pond visited at H. L. Bishop's last week.

Mrs. Leon Briggs and son and daughter of Newport visited friends in town last Friday.

Mrs. Luette Lewis and Mrs. Helen Burroughs of Concord were guests Friday of Mrs. G. W. Bolton.

The Misses Adelle and Leah Wyanski of Boston are spending the summer with their uncle, Jacob Solomon.

D. L. Marshall and family of Arlington Heights, Mass., have been spending a few days at W. E. Gaskill's.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Fletcher of Chattanooga, Tenn., are guests of Prof. and Mrs. E. E. Orcutt at "Edgemore," Willoughby Lake.

Mrs. J. D. Solomon has a new piano with a player attachment which is very fine. Mrs. Ed. Craig and Miss Hazel Allard also have new pianos.

Lela Turner is ill with typhoid fever, but thus far has been quite comfortable and it is hoped that no serious symptoms will develop.

Mrs. R. H. Burke has been on the sick list for the past week; her cousin, Miss Grace Bryant of Derby Line has been staying with her for a short time.

Mrs. Sarah Green, who has been visiting old friends here for several weeks, has gone to Newport and Ayer's Cliff, P. Q., where she will spend some time before returning to her home in Kinderhook N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Marshall of Hardwick and Charlie Marshall of Alston, Mass., were in town Saturday with Mr. Marshall's auto and Mrs. Lorinda Marshall and Mrs. Fanny Sargent returned to Hardwick with them.

A large crowd from here attended the celebration at Lyndonville July 4th and speak in the highest terms of the parade. There was a great crowd and a very good natured and orderly one also. The parades were all excellent and a great amount of time and money was expended.

The semi-annual meeting of the Ladies' Library association was held Saturday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Effie Solomon. Mrs. May Coe was elected treasurer in place of Mrs. Emma Bishop, who has left town. Over forty new books have been bought and everyone is invited to join. The fee is small.

The event of the past week was the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Roundy, which took place on Friday afternoon and evening. It was a perfect day, and over one hundred relatives and friends gathered to congratulate the couple on their fifty years of married life, and to wish them Godspeed for the remainder of the journey. Relatives and friends from Boston, Worcester and Lexington, Mass., Concord, N. H., and Barre and from St. Johnsbury, Barton and Sutton were present, besides those from our own town and village. Their son, W. E. Roundy, two grandsons, Earl and Claude Roundy and one great granddaughter, little Pearl Roundy, were all present, which was very pleasant for Mr. and Mrs. Roundy. Remarks were made by Rev. Mr. Williams of West Burke and Rev. Mr. Chandler of Sutton and an original poem written for the occasion, was read by Rev. Albert Blake of Barton. Refreshments of cake and cream and iced tea were served and the day was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Mr. and Mrs. Roundy received twenty-five dollars in gold, besides some other money, and many other handsome and useful presents.

SUTTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Peavey are visiting relatives in town.

The food sale at Ladies' Aid hall Saturday was a success.

Mr. Lee, representing the Marble Company of Rutland, was in town last week.

Mrs. Willett and daughter have returned to their home in New Brunswick.

A good number from this place attended the celebration at Lyndonville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Joy and Mrs. John Stevens are camping at Willoughby lake.

Mrs. Hattie Belle Ladd, daughter of F. W. Barker and Henry Turner, were married June 13 at Norwood, N. Y. Mr. Turner has a good position as bookkeeper for the railroad company in Norwood where they will reside.

Among those who attended the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Roundy were Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Ruggles, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Barker and Mrs. Belle Barker Turner.

MORGAN CENTER.

Mrs. Grace Caswell has gone to Newport to work.

Mrs. Marshall Ames is entertaining friends from Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bean are visiting friends at Baldwin's mills.

Francis Hill has gone with Wm. Vinton on his trip with his waffle wagon.

Miss Minnie Crowe and Sam Maxwell of Glover are the guests of friends here.

Clyde Busha from East Charleston is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. C. J. Goodsell.

Mrs. Homer Burroughs and daughter Ruby from Coaticook are the guests of friends here.

Alton Hill, whose illness was mentioned last week, died Thursday after an illness of several weeks. He was a member of the M. W. A. of this place, who helped to care for him in sickness and assisted at his burial.

He leaves many friends in this place. The funeral services were held at the union church, Rev. M. L. Ames officiating, interment at the cemetery at the Center.

WESTFIELD.

A poem by Helen M. Winslow, copied from the last Vermonter, is reprinted in another part of this paper.

Hiram O. Miller, who is very low continues about the same. In addition to the attending physician, Dr. W. A. Young, he has been visited by Dr. Gould of Newport and by Dr. C. A. Drew of Worcester, Mass.

Joseph O. Virge of Westfield, and Kate M. Tatro of Montgomery were married at Westfield on the afternoon of June 27. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Bowman at the Congregational parsonage.

Chaplain M. W. Farman was in North Troy on June 22nd to officiate at the funeral of Freeman Jones. He supplied the Congregational pulpit at Coventry on Sunday, July 3 and administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. He will preach in Coventry again on Sunday, July 10.

LOWELL.

The Rev. C. H. Cooledge, 64 years old, pastor of the Congregational church at Eden, who died June 28, had been in the ministry for 30 years and had been pastor of the church at Eden about three and a half years. He is survived by his wife and one daughter.

TROY.

Miss Clarinda Uttin of Orleans is visiting friends in town.

W. L. Sinclair has gone to Maine to work in a bobbin mill.

Miss Mary Farman was in camp with friends at Lake Eden recently.

Mrs. Albert Hartwell spent last week with relatives at Newport.

Howard Bashaw of Granby, P. Q., is here to visit his aunt, Mrs. W. E. Brock.

Miss Ethel Pettingell is home from Lowell where she has been teaching school.

Mrs. Jane Fauwaw and sons Alfred and Irving are visiting relatives in Canada.

Miss Lucretia Porter has gone to St. Johnsbury to remain until Sept. 1st, with her sister.

Frank Chaffee and son of Garrington, North Dakota, were recent visitors of relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Langmaid of West Derby are visiting Mrs. Langmaid's sister, Mrs. Nelson Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Rockwell have gone to West Derby to spend some time with their daughters, Mrs. George Farrell and Mrs. James Richardson. Dr. Charles Drew and wife of Worcester, Mass. have been visiting relatives and friends here. Dr. Drew was born in town and for a long time was a resident of the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Smith went to Potton, P. Q., June 28 to attend the funeral of Mrs. Smith's uncle, George Tisdale, who was killed when his horse took fright at an automobile June 24th.

No More DARNING HOSE if You Buy

"Wunderhose"

They Are Guaranteed Against Holes

—$1.00 per Box for 4 Pairs—

If any of the 4 pairs break or wear through in 4 months time, at heel or toe you may receive a new pair free. You need to purchase 4 pairs ONLY at a time (some makes require the purchase of 6 pairs at a time.)

We Have "Wunderhose"

—for MEN, WOMEN and CHILDREN—

NO MORE DARNING

Saturday Bargain, July 9th

Ladies' Muslim Underwear, Corset Covers, Robes, etc.

At 20 per cent to 33 1-3 per cent from Regular Prices

Everything to Wear for Everybody

G. H. Davis Co.,

BARTON,

VERMONT

White Shirt Waist Opportunity

White Shirt Waists for 98c that sell everywhere from $1.50 to 2.00

Also a few Two-Piece Suits and Wrappers for $1.00

65c White Table Linen for 50c per yard.

Some Millet Seed close out for 5c per lb.

S. E. KING,

Glover, Vermont

A NEW FAMILY IDEA

(Read It)

—SOLVED AT LAST—

The family income need not be cut off in event of your death as you can arrange with the

Prudential Insurance Company of America

so that those dependent upon you may receive monthly, such a sum of money as you may wish to arrange NOW, payable to your wife or some other beneficiary during their entire lifetime, but not less than twenty years. Rates very low, contract very liberal and explicit. For further particulars see,

CLAYTON A. BURROWS, S. A.

H. J. Daigle, Mgr. Burlington, Vt.

BARTON, VERMONT

BABIES' STRAW BONNETS

in Pink and Blue 25-50-75 cts

TENNIS SHOES AND OXFORDS

In all sizes in Black, Tan and White

TRUNKS and SUIT CASES

$2.50 buys a canvas covered Trunk strong and durable, better ones up to $7.25. Suit Cases from 50 cents to $8.00.

THE E. W. BARRON CO.,

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

Barton,

Vermont

HAYING TOOLS

Clipper Solid Steel Corrugated Scythes

Ash and Cherry Snaths. Drag and Hand Rakes with wood or steel bows

The Carborundum Scythe Stone puts the scythe in fine condition and keeps it so

Don't forget to include in your purchases for haying a 20 pound pail of

TID-BITS

and a few pounds of blood red

SALT SALMON

at 7 cents per pound

New Potatoes this week

—AT—

THE E. W. BARRON CO.,

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

Barton,

Vermont

THE E. W. BARRON CO.

One Price Cash Store

Barton,

Vermont